

Is There Anybody

Chorus: Is there anybody who really show they care

There's a crazy world going on out there?

What happened to the word respect, the USA once knew?

Could it be there's an answer in God, me and you?

1--We sit inside our houses watching news on TV,

People spitting in men's faces, hard to believe.

We watch with saddened hearts as men are gunned down.

Is there anybody out there who'll stand their ground?

2--Before a change will happen, we must do our part;

Quit blaming each other but give from our heart.

We must stand for what is right, joining hands in the fight.

Tell me is there anybody out there who's on their knees in prayer?

3--Are we tired of the violence spread through our land?

Shedding of blood from innocent men,

Taking children from our homes, leaving parents all alone;

Tell me is there anybody out there who'll show they care?
